

The German and the Zionist anti-Semites

(1) The current and previous anti-Semitism:

Anti-Semitism has always exposed itself by its hatred against anything that was "Arabic" (including the main religion of that area). Anti-Semites are today (as before) supporters of breathtaking mass murders - including the annihilation of complete Arab cities (Fallujah) and the pollution (depleted uranium) and uncounted mutilations - against allegedly 'inferior' (the word is of course not pronounced) - Arabs.

Why is this typical anti-Semitic? And why has in the first instance nothing at all to do with "Jews"?

The for Europe relevant race-teaching, developed by the French Count de Gobineau didn't know a separate "Jew"-term - even less as a separate breed. Count de Gobineau's definition of 'Semites' as inferior didn't mean 'the Jews' - but 'the A r a b s'. This is because France was at Gobineau time (middle of the 19th century) on its way to submit the predominantly Arabian countries of Tunisia, Algeria and Morocco (if applicable). De Gobineau says a "Semite" is a member of those "dark, nomadic(sic!), unproductive racial groups, that are determined to serve (the valuable races)" (Cornelia-Schmitz-Berning, "Vokabular des Nationalsozialismus", p. 35).

The Nazis never differed from de Gobineau's breed of concept of "Semites" at any time! "Jews" were just the only "Semitic" one could find in Europe. There were (practically) no "Arabs" in the Nazi-Empire. Not earlier than in December 1944 Rosenberg found it necessary to state hastily, that 'the Arabs' no (longer) are to be classified as of inferior race. This was because the Nazi-Bigheads had already packed their suitcases and were quite willing to flee into Arab countries. That Rosenberg declared this at a time, which he could not have chosen any later (Dec. 1944: One hardly could get out of those many encirclements by allied and Soviet troops anymore!). That probably says everything about what the Nazis thought of "Arabs".

This is why we speak - especially since the Nazi era - of "anti-Semitism" and not of "anti-Judaism".

Today Zionists and self-proclaimed 'Holocaust whisperers' continue to use this anti-Semitism of the Nazis and Gobineau's against the inhabitants of Arab countries (and - unspoken - the people of Afghanistan and Iran are also considered 'inferior' and killed and mutilated in masses)!

(2) Can anti-Semites, which consider themselves to be "Jews" (in a racial(!) sense) be "anti-Semites"? Yes!

Gobineau's European anti-Semitism of the 19th century was taken over by the Zionist - however with the change that they excluded their "race" (more to that in a moment) from those who were supposed to be of inferior value.

Such behaviour is not unusual, but typical: Consider how the petty bourgeoisie handled the contempt it got from the great bourgeoisie. The petty bourgeoisie simply copied the attitude of the great bourgeoisie. Only that they excluded themselves from the contempt and instead carried this contempt 'downwards' (against workers, beggars, homeless, poor foreigners, etc.). Their contempt sometimes was even stiffer than that of the great bourgeoisie!

There are other numerous examples in those former European colonies. The local first class or ethnic or caste excluded themselves (In their own thinking) from the contempt of their European masters. But they continued their masters contempt practically unchanged 'downwards' to those castes, ethnics and tribes they considered to be inferior.

(3) How do you recognize today's anti-Semitism or racism?

(a) The use of the word "Jew"

The Nazis understood the word "Jew" only racially. For them those were the "Semites", they could find in their sphere of influence.

My opinion, that the only justified use of the word "Jew" is for someone, who follows the Mosaic religion, was not(!) at all shared by the Nazis and Gobineau:

If Karl Marx had lived at the time of the Nazis, his claim, that he was an atheist and not a Jew at all, wouldn't have saved him: The Nazis would have murdered him as a "Jew". Also Heinrich Heine's claim, that he was a Catholic - and exactly not(!) a "Jew" - wouldn't have saved him: Also he would have been murdered by the Nazis as a "Jew"!

The fact that today's self-proclaimed 'Holocaust whisperers' carry on this national socialist (and Count Gobineau's) R A C E-concept "Jew", shows the racist worldview of these people (example: Naming Israel a "Jewish State" - although there are also atheists, Muslims, Buddhists, and so on). In other word these people understand the word "Jew" as defining a RACE.

Instead of finally unveiling this sick national socialist - and at the same time: Zionist - r a c i a l idea of the word "Jew" as evil, murderous and "disintegrating" and instead of correcting their attitude, they spread this racist determination of "Jew" systematically until today.

(b) The hollow and false formula: "6 million murdered Jews"

The formula of "6 million murdered Jews", that these racist spread, denies the murder of about 500,000 Gypsies (Sinti, Roma, Jenisch) - see http://www.forumromanum.de/member/forum/entry_ubb.user_180250.1154448853.1106052754.1106052754.1.text_den_informationstafeln_des_denkmals_fuer_nationalsozialismus_er_mordeten_sinti-free_chat.html - and therefore is nothing less than a PARTIAL DENYING OF THE HOLOCAUST!

In relation to the crimes of Nazi-empire it is therefore only correct to speak of "6½ millions racialistly murdered persons".

This thoughtless and vain formula of "6 million murdered Jews" used by these racist understands those murdered "Half Jews" and "Quarter Jews" (Nazi-language) also as "Jews" - although by logic they are also 'Half-' and 'Three-quarter Aryans'. These modern 'Holocaust whisperers' still follow the Nazi demon, to which "Half-" and "Quarter Jews" were "Semitic polluted" and just for this reason no more "Aryans".

(c) The partisanship for Israel (also of parts of the left)

That endlessly repeated formula of "6 million murdered Jews" and a supposed obligation thereof in favour of Israel unveils nothing but a racist view and racist thinking:

After all, what do Israel and the Israelis have to do with the Holocaust of the Nazis? The Nazis had never committed murders in Palestine. Even if you consider that the survivors of the Holocaust - unfortunately, but also: understandably - left former Germany after the war, it is clear that practically as good as no one emigrated to Palestine. Almost all emigrated to the United States, to Canada and South America (Argentina, Brazil, Uruguay, Chile etc.).

From this point of view a 'sense of obligation' or a "Wiedergutmachung" towards the United States, Canada, Argentina and Brazil would be understandable. But not towards "Israel"!

Only then can you see a link between the mass killings of the Nazis and Israel, if you carry a racist view of the world ("you know the victims of the Holocaust were 'Jewish'. And most citizens of Israel are also of Jewish race. And that is why we owe them even more support").

BUT THE 'RACE' IS NOT THE VICTIM OF THE HOLOCAUST - THE 'RACE' IS THE CAUSE (!) OF THE HOLOCAUST!

Even the Nazis did not know a separate breed "Jews". To them they were all just "Semites". If these 'Holocaust whisperers' were only a bit consequent they'd would excuse for the Holocaust also to all Iraqis, Moroccans, Syrians, Algerians, Tunisians, Egyptians, Sudanese, Lebanese, Yemenis, and so on. And they'd offer them "Widergutmachung" for " ...that we have murdered 6 million of YOUR people".

Why? Because every young Iraqi, Libyan or Tunisian can say with same right as an Israeli: "What you did to us with your Holocaust ...!!"

Of course, both - an Arab saying that and an Israeli saying that - would be in the very same way a racist illusion or mind game.

(4) Conclusions

(a) We have to object those mad teachings of the Nazis and of the Zionists.

And I mention Nazis and Zionist in one sentence because of this: A. Hitler and "Mein Kampf" was only largely written off of the - already half a century previously existing - Zionist Agenda.

A. Hitler had this thesis of "people without space" and also most of the racist concept simply written off! This parole "People without Space" made never sense for Germany! The people of Germany became quite riche only after a lot of territory was taken away from Germany (after WW II). Also the Netherlands - the most dense populated area in Europe - have been rich and well off for several hundred years now.

Of cause for Zionism the parole "People without Space" made sense.

It's always the same with students, that write off: They don't think while they write off - and then their cheating can be proven.

(b) Frederic the Great forbade torture in the Prussian laws (although the Habsburgers - Maria Theresia - enforced it in their laws at exactly the same time).

Now torture has been reintroduced by Nazis and Zionist and now even by the Nato-countries.

We must oppose this!

(c) Also we must oppose those current and those planed annihilation-wars (mass-murder, depleted uranium, Fallutsha) against Arab and other countries.
